Re: FOIA Request NLRB-2023-001177

Dear Talia Soglin (Chicago Tribune):

This is in response to your request, under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), 5 U.S.C. § 552, received on March 30, 2023, in which you seek “all docketed records” in Dill Pickle Food Co-op, Case No. 13-CA-288926. You assumed financial responsibility for the processing of your request in the amount of $37.00.

We acknowledged your request on March 30, 2023. Your request for expedited processing is granted.

Your request is denied in part and granted in part, as explained below.

After conducting a search of the Agency’s electronic casehandling system, NxGen, I have confirmed that the requested case is an open case pending in the Agency’s Region 13 office. As such, I have determined that certain case file records responsive to your request are exempt from disclosure pursuant to Exemption 7(A) of the FOIA, 5 U.S.C. § 552 (b)(7)(A). Exemption 7(A) allows an agency to withhold records included in an open investigatory file where disclosure could reasonably be expected to interfere with enforcement proceedings. See NLRB v. Robbins Tire & Rubber Co., 437 U.S. 214, 236 (1978). Therefore, given the open status of the requested case, any investigatory records in the case files are being withheld in full pursuant to Exemption 7(A), and will continue to be withheld while the case remains open.

Your request is granted to the extent that I have attached the formal records in the case, which are available to the public pursuant to NLRB FOIA regulations regardless of the open/closed status of a case. At this time, the formal records for this case consist of the charge, the docketing letters to the parties, a notice of appearance, a consolidated complaint, and an answer to the consolidated complaint.

Please note that Exemption 7(A) protection is “temporal in nature.” Citizens for Responsibility & Ethics in Wash. v. Dep’t of Justice, 746 F.3d 1082, 1097 (D.C.

Cir 2014) (citing NLRB v. Robbins Tire, 437 U.S. 214, 223-24 230-32 (1978)). As such, case file records may become disclosable, subject to applicable exemptions, after the case closes, that is, once a Board decision and/or court order issues, there has been full compliance with a settlement, or the case has otherwise been closed under Agency procedures. Accordingly, you may wish to file a new request at that time.

The status of this case can be tracked on the Agency website at www.nlr.gov by going to the Cases & Decisions tab, clicking case search, entering the case number in the search box and viewing the case page or by clicking the link here: <https://www.nlr.gov/case/13-CA-288926>. At present, some case records, including party briefs to the Administrative Law Judge, are available for download from the case page via hyperlinks.

For the purpose of assessing fees, we have placed you in Category C, as a representative of the news media, in that you qualify as a person “actively gathering news for an entity that is organized and operated to publish or broadcast news to the public.” NLRB Rules and Regulations, 29 C.F.R. § 102.117(d)(1)(vii). Accordingly, there is no charge assessed for this request.

You may contact William T. Hearne, the FOIA Attorney-Advisor who processed your request, at (202) 273-0139 or by email at william.hearne@nlrb.gov, as well as the Agency’s FOIA Public Liaison, for any further assistance and/or to discuss any aspect of your request. The FOIA Public Liaison, in addition to the FOIA Attorney-Advisor, can further explain responsive and releasable agency records, suggest agency offices that may have responsive records, and/or discuss how to narrow the scope of a request in order to minimize fees and processing times. The contact information for the Agency’s FOIA Public Liaison is:

Kristine M. Minami, FOIA Public Liaison
